CADORNA FIGHTS VALIANTLY TO SAVE HIS ARMIES

NEED OF SHIPS, CUT LAKE STEAMERS IN HALF

CUT STEAMER IN HALF.

Owing to the urgent need of ships for transatlantic service, freighters in use on the Great Lakes are being refitted for the work. At the yards of the American Shipbuilding Co., at Cleveland, Ohio, these lake carriers are being cut in two parts to permit their passage through the short locks of the Welland Canal to the Atlantic. The ships are placed in dry dock and cut in two sections with acetylene gas torches. The sections are hoisted and caulked, after which the dock is floated and the sections pulled apart. They are then towed through the Welland Canal and the locks of the St. Lawrence River to Montreal, where they are rejoin temporarily. The ship is then taken to an Atlantic port shipyard where it is refitted and made seaworthy for ocean service.

NO SEPARATE PEACE FOR RUSSIA POSSIBLE

Foreign Minister Terestchenko Addresses Parliament.

Policy in Foreign Affairs Has Not Changed, He Asserts.

(Associated Press Cable)

Petrograd, October 29.—Foreign minister Terestchenko, in addressing the preliminary parliament today said a separate peace was impossible and the defense of Russian territory was one of the fundamental needs.

He said the absolute independence of Courland and perhaps of Poland and Lithuania was impossible as it would mean that Russia would return to the days before Peter. He also asserted that complete demobilization and disarmament and the neutralization of canals and straits were impossible.

Russia's foreign policy has not changed, he continued, since the first statement enunciating the principles of no indemnities, no annexations and the right of nations to self definition. "The people must understand that the war is being carried on not by governments, but by nations," he added.

"As the nations began the fighting so must they end it. Russia and France first held back the foes and so they continue."

The foreign minister declared offers for a separate peace and sentiment in favor of them were strongest last May when followed by the Russian offensive.

DEATH CLAIMS AGED LEADER IN POLITICS

Chas. H. Grosvenor, of Athens, Former Congressman, Dead.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Athens, O., October 30.—General Chas. H. Grosvenor, former representative from the Eleventh Ohio District, died here early today at the age of 84, after a long illness.

General Grosvenor, for many years a noted figure in Republican politics in Ohio and for 20 years a member of Congress had been failing in health for several years. He had not been active in political affairs in Ohio since 1906 when defeated for Congress by Albert Douglas, of Chillicothe.

General Grosvenor was born in Connecticut at Pomfret, September 23, 1833, of revolutionary stock. His father moved in 1838 to Athens, Ohio. The General began the study of law and in 1857 was admitted to the bar. Before entering political life he distinguished himself as one of the ablest lawyers in his section of the state, and never abandoned the practice of law.

In 1874 he was elected to the Ohio House of Representatives and on reelection was chosen speaker of that body. He entered national politics as a member of the 94th Congress in 1885 and served three terms at that time.

His second term began in 1893 and he served continuously from the 53rd to the 59th Congress inclusive.

NAMED ASSISTANT SEC'Y OF TREASURY

Berlin Advices Indicate Steady Advance of Austro-Germans.

German Center Now Occupies Udine.

Teutons Endeavor to Cut Off Northern Section of Cadorna's Forces.

French and British Advances on the Aisne and in Flanders.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

General Cadorna is bending every effort to retard the Austro-German advance on the Isonzo front while he effects a retirement to the strong line on the Tagliamento river. His cavalry is today reported in close touch with the enemy who has been further hampered in this forward movement by the strong resistance of the Italian rear guards and the destruction of the bridges over the Isonzo.

The Teutonic center which yesterday was near Udine, the former Italian general headquarters, has now entered that place.

More menacing to Cadorna's purposes than this movement seems to be the attack on his left flank against the upper reaches of the Tagliamento.

The hope of the German command apparently is to reach this northern section and turn it back before the more southerly Italian forces can fall back to the river and establish themselves there.

Berlin advices today indicate a steady advance by the Austro-German columns toward this objective.

IN FLANDERS

The battle in Flanders was resumed by the infantry this morning when the British moved forward to the attack north of the Ypres-Roulers railroad. Field Marshal Haig announced the renewal of the offensive in his usual laconic style, adding merely that the troops were reported to be making good progress.

On the Aisne front in northern France where the French in their recent advance southwest of Laon have jeopardized the safety of a considerable section of the German lines, the Germans delivered an attack last night in an effort to push back the French in the region of Cerny. The French easily repulsed this assault.

The artillery battle is continuing in the sector in which the French made their advance. In the Verdun region General Petain's troops last night regained more of the small strip of ground lost in a recent German assault in the wooded sector east of the Meuse.

LIBERTY LOAN SUBSCRIPTION MOUNTING UP

FIRST AMERICAN WOUNDED

With the American Army in France, October 29.—(Associated Press Cable)—The first American wounded in the trenches arrived today at a base hospital. He is a Lieutenant of the Signal Corps. He was hit in the leg by a shell splinter while working in a communication trench near the front line. The wound is slight.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, October 30.—First receipts from the second sale of Liberty Bonds reached the Treasury today. The amount, $124,590,750, reported by Federal Reserve Banks represents the portion of the initial two per cent sent by subscribers with applications and a small part of the money received for actual cash sales.

The banks have until Thursday to deposit with Federal Reserve banks the first full payments of the cash sales. At least one billion, it is thought, will be paid in by that time as thousands of sales especially of bonds of smaller denominations were made for cash.

Final adjustment of payments for bonds of the first Liberty Loan virtually have been completed.

Although the final payment on first Liberty bonds was due August 30, hundreds of subscribers failed for various reasons to make them. In some cases after paying one or two installments subscribers failed to pay the remainder and those sales, together with others on which the final payment was delayed for other reasons, had to be adjusted.

NEW LOAN TO FRANCE.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, October 30.—Ten million more dollars were advanced to France today by the government, bringing credits to the allies to the total of $2,866,400,000.

U. S. WILL SEND AID TO ITALY

Experts Believe Gen. Cadorna Will Save Armies.

Food Supplies Will be Diverted by America.

Fall of Udine Was Fully Expected by Observers.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, October 30.—The next move by the United States to help Italy in her critical hour will be to divert quantities of coal, supplies and food intended for other destinations to the 25 ships already turned over to Italy.

By this response to Italy's need the first actual help to be extended from any of the Allies to the fighting forces is expected as well as encouragement for the civil population.

Military experts here agree that General Cadorna will retire with his whole army to the new line of defense 25 miles in the rear of the present lines. These experts say it must have been impossible to remove within a few days what guns were on the mountain tops, so they fell into the hands of the Austro-Germans as an incident to the rapid retreat of the Italians.

The fall of Udine lately General Cadorna's headquarters, was fully expected by the Italians here and it was said by the experts that the Italians were resisting at that point only for the purpose of gaining sufficient time to allow their retreat under the protection of this salient of the eastern and southern Italian armies on Austrian soil.

BIG BOX OF KNIT GOODS SHIPPED TO M COMPANY

Local Branch of National League for Women's Service Doing Noble Work for Fighting Men and for Humanity—Ninth Box Will be Shipped Later This Week—Work Room a Busy and Interesting Place.

That Washington and Fayette county women, enrolled in the National League of Women's Service, have long ago caught the spirit of service to their country, and are nobly doing their bit in the interest of humanity and to help the war, is fully attested in the result of their toil to add to the comfort of "Our Boys" in the army, and to see to the care of the wounded on the battlefield.

Monday afternoon the room in Memorial Hall occupied by the League was a scene of more than usual activity as a huge box of knitted goods for the Fayette County boys enrolled in Company M, was prepared for shipment direct to Captain O. E. Hardway, to be distributed among the Fayette County men where most needed.

When packed the big box contained the following heavy, gray wool articles so necessary to the men in the over-seas camp during the winter: 47 sweaters, 51 mufflers, 92 pairs of wristlets and 25 helmets, a total of 215 pieces and having a value of several hundred dollars.

Women all over the city, and in various parts of Fayette county, have been working on the consignment for the past two months and more, and the shipment would have been much larger had wool yarn of the right kind been available.

Each piece was in accordance with specifications, all being gray in color and each piece representing the toil and love of some woman who has the welfare of her country and the fighting men at heart.

That the shipment will be welcomed and greatly appreciated by the men of Company M, there can be no doubt, and it will increase their knowledge of the faith and regard of the women folks "back home" and be the best kind of assurance that their welfare is of much concern to the folks from their home county.

The box is the eighth one which the local branch of the National League for Women's Service has shipped to headquarters, or direct to those for whom the articles are meant, most of the other shipments being dressings which are so badly needed in the hospitals at the front.

The ninth box, containing hundreds of dressings and such articles required at hospitals, will be shipped later this week.

The first knitting of the League was sent to the Navy League for distribution, but the local branch decided that home boys should have the first consideration, and will send the shipment direct to Company M, for immediate use.

Meanwhile, the work of knitting will go forward without interruption as the supply of yarn permits, and the work of making surgical dressings, which will now be needed for the American soldiers at the front, will go forward without interruption.

The room occupied by the League invariably presents a busy place, the hum of sewing machines denoting rapid headway on surgical dressings, and the busy needles of the other workers being applied to other articles which are not so easily handled on sewing machines.

But not all of the work is done at this room. Dozens of women, who have caught the vision of service in the interest of humanity, ply the needle in their homes and send the finished product to headquarters at Memorial Hall for shipment.

Every article must be made according to pattern, and the need of additional workers is growing. Every woman or girl is eligible to enroll and their services would be welcomed by the League members.

ALLEY LIGHTS FILL LONG FELT NEED

Lamps at the up-town alley intersections, recently installed by The Washington Gas and Electric Company in accordance with the contract entered into with the city, are proving just what has long been needed at the alley intersections.

Not only do the lamps afford adequate light in the alleys, showing delivery wagons, other vehicles and pedestrians the way, but they are a safeguard against crime, illuminating any hiding place that a back-door worker or other thief might choose.

BEET SUGAR HERE DEALERS ACTING WITH GOVERNMENT

The first beet sugar of the season is now being sold by local grocers, and as stated a few days ago, the price is much lower than that of cane sugar during the sugar famine the past week or ten days, limited quantities being sold at 8 3/4 cents per pound, while most grocers are selling cane sugar in limited quantities at 10 cents per pound as asked by Food Administrator Hoover.

The retailers have not only expressed a willingness to do everything possible to co-operate with the Federal Food Administration, but are placing their intentions into practice.

The above prices on sugar represent the price suggested by the Food Administration.

Sugar is still sold in limited quantities and will be until the temporary shortage is alleviated, when the ban will be lifted and the usual amounts sold at the price fixed by the government, so that for an indefinite period no advance in the price of sugar is anticipated.

ANOTHER CAR OF COAL IS OBTAINED BY POWER PLANT

Some hurry up work on the part of the B. & O. railroad in handling a car of coal from Wellston to this city in twelve hours' time, or less, prevented the Washington Gas and Electric Company from closing down, Tuesday morning, and affords sufficient fuel to last until Thursday evening by which time it is expected that additional fuel can be obtained and the plant kept in continuous operation.

The co-operation of the B. & O. in keeping the car moving is probably all that prevented the plant from being closed down Tuesday morning.

SUPT B. F. TOOPS STOPS IN THE CITY

State Superintendent of Employment Bureaus, B. F. Toops, former principal of the Cherry Hill school in this city and who for sometime was at the head of the labor bureau in this city, was a business visitor in the city Monday evening, calling on Manager Smith of the Fayette-Clinton Bureau.

Superintendent Toops states that most of his time since he was appointed State Superintendent has been devoted to visiting the various bureaus of the state and perfecting plans for broadening the work and making it meet, insofar as possible, the demands of the public.

Superintendent Toops stated that he could use 5,000 skilled and unskilled laborers throughout the state, having that number of requests for men.

In Social Circles

A "kid party" provided an evening of record breaking merriment for many young women, chiefly members of the Bloomingburg Wednesday Club, on Monday night at the Wood-ward Hall in Bloomingburg.

Mrs. Maude Howland and Miss Helen Haines, two fetching little girls, were in a bright red frock with red ribbons, filled the role of hostesses to the intense delight of their guests, also in childish garb that added immensely to the fun. There were little girls with bobbed hair, little girls with curls and little girls with pig tails and two real Buster Brown boys.

The settings were all of the Halloween black cats, witches, goblins and decorations of yellow and black. The crowd played kid games, and there was music and spooky readings. The refreshments were kid special. Late in the evening Miss Haines impersonated a witch, bringing from a cauldron sticks of candy for all the little girls.

Guests entertained with the club were Miss Mott of Cleveland, Miss Helen Briggs of Columbus, Miss Ethel Spray, Lucy Higgins, Sister Elsa Tway, Edna Pine, Mrs. Herman Haines and Mrs. William Haines assisted the hostesses.

Mrs. Austin Baughn was tendered most delightful birthday surprise on the occasion of her fiftieth birthday Sunday at her home at Ebers. It was a complete surprise, but a most appreciated one. The guests brought baskets that held everything from a royal picnic dinner. Great plates of fried chicken, delicious cakes of all manner of home-made eat-ables testified to the expert culinary skill.

The fifty guests lingered in social pleasure late in the day. They were: Mr. and Mrs. John Baughn and daughters of Jamestown, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Simms, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Simms and children, of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. John Foster and daughter, Mr. I. L. Evans and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Bitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bitzer of Bloomingburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Allie Lucas, Wm. William, Mr. and Mrs. Coy Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Baughn and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Draise, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Allemang and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Yoeman, Mrs. Vir-o-o-a Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Will Rief and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haines.

The first musical program of the Junior Cecilians was held at the home of Miss Margaret McDonald Monday night. Several new members were in attendance.

In keeping with the spirit of the times, the season's work was opened with a patriotic evening. The opening number "America" sung by all the members showed the splendid chorus work of which the girls are capable.

Miss Martha Teeters followed with an excellent talk on "Patriotic Music." Miss Teeters discussion was filled with interesting facts concerning the great part music plays in military life.

Miss Marion Christopher played a Grodski number of much beauty. Miss Christopher's playing is always a delight to the members and the Grodski number elicited much praise.

One of the prettiest numbers of the evening was "Teuting Tonight" sung by a quartet composed of Misses Margaret Mark, Naomi Rowan, Helen McKee and Margaret Christopher.

A Jensen number played by Miss Bernice O'Brian showed excellent technique and good interpretation.

Miss Roberta Stokesbury closed the program with "Keep the Home Fires Burning." The applause which greeted the singer showed the appreciation of the "Juniors" for Miss Stokesbury's lovely voice.

Miss Marie Tharp did excellent work as accompanist of the evening.

Miss Light, club supervisor, explained the affiliation of the "Juniors" to their sponsors, for the benefit of the new members.

At the business meeting one week ago Miss Gardner addressed the girls and delighted them with an outline of the year's work. Her suggestions are always an inspiration to the members.

Miss Margaret McDonald, President, appointed Miss O'Brian a treasurer for the year and Miss Dora May Stewart as corresponding secretary to fill the places of Misses Ruth Reid and Gladys Fenner. Miss McDonald also promised a program of much interest for the next meeting.

Mrs. W. D. Moots (Laura Plymire) was given quite a surprise at her home Monday evening by the girls of her Sunday school class of the Baptist church.

The toasting of marshmallows and victrola music added to the evening's pleasure.

Many beautiful gifts were showered upon the recent bride.

In compliment to Mrs. Wilkerson Freeman, of Huntington, W. Va., the charming guest of Mrs. Jesse Persinger, Mrs. Fred B. Creamer entertained Tuesday with a delightful little dinner of eight covers.

Mrs. Howard Engle and Mrs. Warren Hicks extended the hospitality of their homes at Red Cross teas, Tuesday afternoon. Both were cheery little affairs in welcome contrast to the real winter's chill outside.

Miss Helen Keil, of Oxford, Home Synodical president, who was here to address the Woman's District meeting of Chillicothe Presbytery, Tuesday, is the guest of Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins until Wednesday.

Mr. McClure resides in Bloomingburg and Mr. Straley at Jeffersonville.

The duties of the new commissioners will soon be outlined by the fuel administrator.

DISTRICT MEETING MISSIONARY SOCIETIES OF MUCH INTEREST

Although the wintry storm of the day somewhat interfered with the attendance, the interest of the District Meeting, held at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday was one of pronounced interest and profit in its fine programs and "get together" features.

There were in the neighborhood of half a hundred women representing the four societies of Wilmington, Bloomingburg, First Presbyterian and McNair Memorial of this city.

The societies especially appreciated having with them Miss Keil, Home Secretary President, who, from her direct personal knowledge gave new insight into the great work of Home Missions.

The morning session convened promptly at ten o'clock, with Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, president, presiding.

Mrs. M. O. Ireland conducted devotional exercises, after which were made reports by the secretary, Mrs. S. W. Lair, and Auxiliary reports by presidents of local societies, Mrs. Briggs, of Wilmington; Mrs. Quincy Kinkaid, of Bloomingburg; Mrs. Ireland, of the McNair, and Mrs. Hopkins, of the First Presbyterian.

Miss Keil made a strong presentation of the needs and vital importance of "Our Work" in her morning address. She especially urged that women, in the stress of present calls remember the necessity of keeping missionary work up to the standard and that Christian religion is the basis for every philanthropic work.

Mrs. Welter Shoop sang beautifully "How Lovely are Thy Dwellings," Mrs. B. F. Davis playing the organ accompaniment.

Miss Blanche Tullis closed the morning program with an exceptionally fine paper on "The Mountain People." The fascinating history of the mountaineers was briefly sketched before Miss Tullis discussed present conditions and the eagerness now displayed by mountain people in gaining education where formerly there was utter indifference.

There is a great field for Home Mission work among the mountaineers.

Mrs. K. Grantham, of Wilmington, was in charge of the devotionals of the afternoon.

Miss Blanche McCoy, of Wilmington presented an excellent paper on "India" and Miss Keil spoke again on "Presbyterial and Auxiliaries," urging societies to give more prayer and more money.

Rev. Rejy pronounced the benediction.

During the noon hour the women of the First Presbyterian church served an appetizing luncheon. Tea tables, laid in a hollow square, looked very pretty with big bunches of white and mahogany chrysanthemums and the hour was one of pleasurable visiting.

The committee in charge was composed of Mesdames Frank S. Jackson, Fred D. Woollard, John Wilson, G. W. Blakeley, Carey Persinger, Chas. Severs, Robert Bryson.

There will be a call meeting of Imperial Rebekah Lodge, No. 717 at I. O. O. F. Hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 31st at 7:30 for balloting on applications and other business.

The sudden cold snap and consequent heavy call for gas all over the territory is supposed to have been responsible for the temporary low pressure.

Next Tuesday

It is only one week now—really less than a week—and election day will be here. Next Tuesday, November 6th, the people of Ohio vote on several important questions.

The election this year is the "off" year. We have become accustomed to designating those years in which no county, state or national officers are elected as "off" years.

Because, perhaps, of the fact that there are no remunerative offices to be filled there is less activity among the politicians in the off years and conditions this year are no exception to the general rule. There is not much of a stir among the people over political matters.

Then, too, the all-important war activities are commanding the attention and demanding the best efforts of the people.

However, there are proposals now pending before the people of Ohio of more importance, to them, as a matter of fact, than filling offices, and which must be disposed of next Tuesday. One of those proposals is the one to make Ohio dry.

Prohibition is now vital to the nation—the army has recognized that fact and has barred intoxicants.

Fayette County voters do not need to be convinced of the vital necessity for adopting prohibition, but they do perhaps need to be warned not to neglect their great duty to record their ballots.

It does no good for men to think dry, unless they act dry, and the most effective way next Tuesday to act dry is to vote dry.

The New Draft Plan

A complete new plan of classification affecting the nine million or more registrants in the United States, has been formally adopted and announced by army officials and the war department.

Hereafter, instead of calling men for service in the order of their draft number the call will be according to the classification which is to be immediately put into effect.

There has been some dissatisfaction with the working of the draft law which was intended to be a "selective" draft.

The effect of the law under the plan of operation—calling by draft number—has been to wholly, and unavoidably too, disregard the selective feature of the law and the very manifest intent of congress.

Men have, under the old plan been called, examined, found physically fit and sent into active service, when under the policy of the "selective" law they should not have been sent, while others, whom it was the policy of the law to send first, remained at home. Under the order of the war department officials there was no way for the local or district boards to avoid that result.

The old plan compelled a rigid adherence to exemptions—the boards were allowed no discrimination at all. The new plan is to make effective the very important selective features of the draft law.

The confusion under the old plan, too, was probably unavoidable, because of the necessity for haste. The new plan will undoubtedly work more in harmony with the intent of the law framers, meet with more approval of the people, the department and be in every way more satisfactory.

Every draftee will know his class and the registrants will be called according to class.

Two Improvements Needed

The people of our own city of Washington, like the people of every other city in the United States at this time have a great many important tasks to perform. The nation needs the best efforts and the constant endeavor of every one in every community.

There is such a vast amount of big things to be done—so many opportunities and duties—nation-wide in their scope—confronting the people that there is danger, unless we are careful, that the smaller duties affecting only our local conditions may be overlooked or neglected.

While there are many things that could be done to improve local conditions, there are two pressing needs which stand out prominently—to improve the paved streets in the business section of the city and to provide gates and watchmen at our dangerous grade crossing, the last named especially.

Improving the business section streets is very much to be desired—in one sense it is a necessary improvement and neglecting it means discomfort and danger to the highway travelers, but the railroad grade crossings, as at present maintained, are positive death traps.

Our public spirited business men have accomplished a great deal in the last five years in the way of civic improvements, and there is not the least doubt, if they would set determinedly to work, that the two very much needed improvements could be brought about.

Poetry For Today

DON'T BOAST

When making a bid for the big things of life
Don't boast of the honors you'll get,
And don't be too knowing to heed sound advice;
Few things have been won like that yet.

Don't think that by skipping the work you dislike,
And doing a bit when you please,
You'll ever be reckoned a fellow who counts,
Every record of life disagrees.

Don't make it your business to brag of your powers
And talk of the things you can do.
Nor think, if perchance in some line you excel,
None others as clever as you.

The pupil who thinks the he knows everything,
And heeds not the things he's been taught,
Quite frequently turns out a failure in life,
And the "sum" of his deeds comes to "naught."

Ne're yet has the laggard the student excelled,
Nor boasted brave works outshone;
The gossip in armchairs are still "marking time," While the folks they're belittling "get on."

So center your mind on your studies each day,
Stick onto your task, see them through
Don't talk of your deeds, but make your deeds talk,
And the world will be talking of you!

Mexico City, October 12.—Recent heavy frosts have destroyed three-quarters of the corn crop on the central plateau of Mexico, according to estimates by the National Chamber of Commerce. It is stated that the corn this year will be about 25 per cent of normal throughout the country. ## WE'LL DALLY 'ROUND THE FLAG, BOYS

IN THE EVENING PAPER

War news? Yes, a plenty! The paper's full of pillage and carnage and grime and gore; The great guns are booming with never a lull But—here is a note not sounded before; A line that is writ in an unknown tongue—"I couldn't kill him—he was so young!"

The meaning?—A British Tommy, it seems, Is shot in the arm by a German gun; He strikes down the bayonet as it gleams Straight for his heart—then turns on the Hun To serve him the same; but he suddenly sees The chap's but a boy—so, cool as you please,

He says, "Your my prisoner!" and marches him in, Answering back to the gibes out-lung, (Can't you see his look, and his sheepish grin?) "I couldn't kill him—he was so young!" And I'll bet the other fellows were glad, And had a kind word for the trembling lad.

Anyway, it illumines—that one brief line—The dreary page of the "World's War News;" Like a star in the tempest it seems to shine, Diffusing a glow through the somber hues, God grant it shall serve as a prophecy Of a happier time that is soon to be!

PLAN TO RESTORE ART TREASURERS

(Associated Press Correspondence)

Paris, October 10.—The Flore pavilion of the Louvre museum will soon be vacated by the loan department of the Ministry of Finance which has occupied it since the issue of the first war loan. Friends of the Louvre ask that the Fine Arts Department take advantage of the opportunity to bring back to the Louvre some of the masterpieces of the art gallery that were taken to Toulouse for safety early in the war.

A few rooms containing sculpture are the only parts of the gallery now open to the public.

Some important tapestries from the chateau of Malmaison, that were taken to Toulouse at the same time as Joconde and other rich treasures of the Louvre, were recently brought back so lacerated that the workmen of the Gobelins tapestry manufactory found difficulty in repairing them. It is asked whether the paintings, lying in cases at the convent of the Jacobins at Toulouse, may not be exposed to depredations by rats.

FORMER GOVERNOR OF INDIANA HITS LIQUOR BUSINESS

Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather of Monday night, a large number of citizens assembled at Memorial Hall and heard Hon. J. Frank Hanley, former governor of Indiana, in one of the most enlightening addresses on the liquor traffic delivered in this city in many a day.

The meeting was presided over by Hon. C. A. Reid, who prefaced his introduction of the speaker of the evening with a few statements showing why the saloon cannot be kept out of politics until it is entirely ousted from business.

The Boy's Glee Club of the Washington High School rendered appropriate numbers during the evening.

Ex-Governor Hanley spoke straight from the shoulder, and featured his address with the war, war conditions, and the fact that all interested in the United States had lined up back of the government to a man, except the saloon interests, and that they had taken steps which caused the National Government to fear an insurrection dividing the country if the government stopped the manufacture and sale of all liquor during the war, and it was due to this that caused the Senate to vote against the proposal which was adopted by almost an unanimous vote of the lower house, providing for suspension of the liquor business until after the war. He noted the fact that both Ohio Senators had voted for the wets in this connection.

The entire address was a logical appeal to all persons to vote for the proposed amendment, prohibiting the sale of liquor in Ohio, and to do all in their power to stamp out a business that at this hour above all others should be rooted out once and for all time. He was frequently interrupted by applause during his discourse.

GREAT SUFFERING CALLS FOR AID

Tomorrow and Thursday are days when every woman ought to remember and send everything they can possibly spare to the Welfare Association room in the Y. M. C. A. building for Friday's Rummage Sale.

Those who cannot send donations call Mrs. Carrie B. Willis or Miss Mary Robinson and donations will be called for.

The sudden cold snap is causing great suffering and the poor of the city are hopefully looking forward to this sale to enable them to purchase warm clothing and other necessities at little cost. The present high prices make it all the more important that those who can, donate to this sale.

If ever there was a time when poor people depended on this sale it is now. The suffering is already beginning in a winter which will undoubtedly be the hardest that the Welfare Association has ever known. And, with all the desire in the world to alleviate suffering, the Association is desperately in need of money.

A big Rummage Sale will both put money in the treasury and provide for the wants of those with scant means. Everything is needed, both for grown-ups and children—anything that is for comfort or use will sell.

The Association, in touch with the terrible need, begs women in more fortunate circumstances to sacrifice for those less fortunate and to send donations liberally.

"CAMILLE" OFFERS BIG POSSIBILITIES

Opinion of Noted Reviewer Who Saw Theda Bara Superpicture at Private Showing.

At a private showing of "Camille," the William Fox film version of the Theda Bara superpicture, a reviewer of national repute wrote his private opinion of the picturization of the famous "Lady of the Camellias" for Mr. Fox. The letter was entirely independent of the most favorable review of the censors, and is herewith appended:

Mr. Fox's film version of "Camille" is a most interesting arrangement of the events in the famous character's life. The great gripping interest develops in the fourth reel, when it grows intense, reaching its climax at the end of the fifth. The sixth is where Miss Bara really shows the artistic emotional talent for which she is famous. Love, the renunciation, depicting the more noble nature of Camille, are the features that go to make it a great picture.

As a whole, the picture has a cumulative interest, growing in its intensity as the film is reached—the acme, it seems to me, of a real worth-while picture.

From an exhibitor's standpoint, Camille offers an admirable contrast to the feast of other great pictures to be announced in the next "Fox Policy."

In Camille there are scenes where the beauty of Miss Bara is well brought out, especially in the close-ups, showing her happy home life with Armand. It is the real woman that underlies the sordid parts of Camille's life.

Attention to detail, especially in the millinery shop, is worthy of compliments for the director. As a box office attraction for the exhibitor, Camille offers attractive possibilities. Desire to see Bara in the character so widely read should bring results. Camille is certainly a picture play in which Bara's dramatic and artistic ability is well demonstrated.

"Camille" will be shown at The Palace Theatre two days, matinee and night, Wednesday, October 31, and Thursday, November 1st.

THE ONE OBJECT OF THE PLEDGE

In the present nation-wide campaign for food conservation, launched locally this week, no one is asked to deny themselves a single necessity, but every woman who signs the food conservation pledge puts herself on record as willing to do her bit in the great food conservation army.

It may be that the signer has been practicing the most rigid economy and feels that everything possible is already being done to eliminate waste in her household. The pledge does not ask her to do any more, but merely to signify her willingness to continue her efforts and to throw her influence in every way for the success of the food conservation plan.

The co-operation of the housewives of the county in this gigantic movement is essential and the signed pledge is needed both as the evidence of the intention to perform a patriotic duty and as a matter of supporting the government management.

It is only for the purpose of securing and maintaining intelligent and active co-operation that the pledge campaign is being carried on—so that we may know our duty and do it to the best of our ability. Nothing more than in not effective and spasmodic individual effort.

EVERY DOG OWNER IN COUNTY MUST GET DOG LICENSE

Every owner of a dog in Fayette county, as well as all over the country, must pay extra for such a privilege, beginning in December, when the new tax becomes effective.

At that time the owners must apply at the County Auditor's office, describe the "pup" giving his age, pedigree and value, paying special tax and receiving a permit and tag good for one year. The owner then proceeds to the Treasurer's office where he will pay the usual taxes on the dog for the past year, the last proceeding under the old law. Hereafter the dog will be paid for ahead of time and not afterwards. A male dog costs $1 and a female dog license $2 a year.

The law goes into effect January 1, and after that time the Sheriff will be on the lookout for unlicensed dogs. He gets $1 for every one he catches. The Justice who assists in putting the dog in the pound which the commissioners must furnish receives 50 cents for his service. It will cost 25 cents each day the dog is fed and 25 cents to post the notice and 50 cents for selling or destroying the animal.

Bills giving the text of the law will be posted, but there is no money for sending out notices to dog owners to come in and pay up.

TURKEYS BY THOUSANDS FOR SOLDIERS

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., October 30.—It will take somewhere around 4,000 turkeys and 8,000 quarts of cranberries to give each hungry soldier at Camp Sherman a good Thanksgiving dinner next month.

That's figuring a turkey to each ten men and a quart of cranberries to each five men. At $2 each for turkeys and 12 cents a quart for the cranberries, these incidentals of one meal at Camp Sherman will cost $9,000. That doesn't take into consideration any of the other things, which will cost considerably more.

Draftees at the camp already are beginning to talk about Christmas. It isn't so much about what they will or hope to get as it is wonder about how they will get what is intended for them. Santa Claus will have some job filling each army sock at Camp Sherman and not the least of that job will be to get gifts to the camp.

Postal authorities already are working on plans for handling enormous quantities of parcel post matter. They believe that twice or three times as many gifts will come to the selective draft men as would be sent to 40,000 ordinary civilians.

Newspaper men were taken to all Y. M. C. A. regimental buildings one night recently so they could get an idea of what was taking place.

In one building, Mrs. Lillian Burt was delivering a temperance lecture; in another three singers were conducting a concert program; in another men of the 320th regiment were being paid off, with the captain, lieutenants and two sergeants on guard; in another a lively boxing contest was on between two live wires and the place was jammed and packed with the shouting adherents of one or the other party to the bout; in another the Y. M. C. A. director was conducting a rehearsal of the orchestra which is being formed in one of the batteries; in the K. of C. building, Mrs. King of Ironton, was giving a program of recitations; in the main Y. M. C. A. auditorium the Sank brothers were having a rehearsal for the military minstrel show which they are planning to put on in about two weeks, and in another the officers of one regiment and their women folks were having a dance.

In addition to all this, there were thousands of boys busy writing letters home, while in one building where pay day had just occurred, the postal department of the Y. M. C. A. was piled high with bundles which the boys had started home to their folks.

The Y. M. C. A. buildings in each regiment are great places for the soldiers and a big per cent spend their spare time in them. Nearly 100 "Y" workers are throwing all the power of personality, good fellowship and other qualities which earned them the right to come to the Army Y. M. C. A. as officers, toward making camp life pleasant and free from despondency and homesickness. It is far from town and there would be little else for them to do at night were it not for these well-regulated places. As it is, the men manage to have a good and profitable time. They would almost as soon go without their pay as lose their "Y."

An automobile is about the most profitable thing a man can own in Chillicothe, provided he can get a taxi license. Taxicabs afford the best means of getting in and out of Camp Sherman and the regulation charge is twenty-five cents, one way. Taxis seldom take out less than four passengers and even small cars frequently carry six or eight. They get as many passengers on their return trip and a round trip can be made in 30 minutes under ordinary circumstances. On Saturdays and Sundays a taxi will take in from $30 to $100 a day.

REAL ARTISTS WILL FURNISH SERIES OF CECILIAN CONCERTS

The Cecilians' concert course opens Wednesday night, November seventh, with Miss Alma Beck, a noted contralto, whose appearance in this city marks a distinctly metropolitan musical event.

Miss Beck is a singer of national reputation and leaves immediately after her engagement here for the East where she fills engagements of long standing. She sings the songs of American, English, Italian and French composers, bringing her own accompanist, Miss Irene Gardner, a splendid concert pianist.

Everyone at all in touch with musical artists has heard of Miss Beck, but until the Cecilian announcement of having booked her for Washington, the idea of hearing her right in the High School auditorium of our city would have been thought most improbable.

Although Miss Beck opens the course she is only one, even if a very brilliant member, who will contribute to the success of the Cecilians' concert course.

For January 4th the Culp String Quartet has been booked and their concert will be another big musical attraction. These native Hollanders, four artists, each of whom is a master, are great favorites in Cincinnati and are creating a standard for chamber music in the middle west.

Samuel Richards Gaines, composer and organist of Columbus, will give a Lecture Song-Recital, which will be a much appreciated number. Mr. Gaines is well known in this city as he is throughout the state.

Negotiations are now under way for the fourth out of town concert.

Besides this quartet of bonifide attractions, the Cecilians will give two public recitals and all who have heard the wonderfully beautiful recitals given by these musical women know that their concerts will also be genuine musical treats.

The first will be a Christmas recital on December the 4th; the second an Easter recital, March the 19th.

The entire concert course of five, probably six, special concerts as well as the regular semi-monthly Cecilian recitals, are open to all associate members of the club and for the first time the public is privileged to enjoy associate membership.

There will be no additional charge for any of these concerts to those who hold associate membership tickets.

The concerts, while high class, will be popular, and the public may well feel indebted to the Cecilians for the opportunity of hearing such a series of recitals. Each one will be given in the High School Auditorium.

CHIEF WRITES LAST LETTER FROM THE U. S.

Sergeant Clarence Kennedy Sends Another One of Those Absorbing Letters From Camp Mills.
Expects to be in France or Some Other Clime When Next Letter is Written.

The Herald is in receipt of another one of the series of interesting letters written by Sergeant Clarence Kennedy, better known as "Chief," member of Company M, and this time the "Chief" announces that in all probability his next letter will come from somewhere else other than from a camp in the United States.

His letter follows:
"Camp Albert L. Mills, Long Island
"No doubt you have begun to think that I have forgotten that you were in existence, but such is not the case.
Could you have been with me for the past few weeks you would have said that you had put in the busiest time of your life. We have been overcrowded with work of various kinds, some of it pleasant enough and other that was not so pleasant, but it all goes to make up the great war game that we are playing. With our drill periods taking up most of the time we have had very little time to do many of the other things that have risen as we advance nearer to the time that we all are longing to see, the time when we shall march aboard ship, when this time is to come we do not know and even did we know the date we would not be permitted to give it out, yet we hope that the time is not far distant when they will hand us orders to roll our war babies and hike for the ship. Everybody wants a poke at the Kaiser, and if he ever pokes his head over the top somebody will forget his target and change.

a few cases of measles and the boys

ALL ARE LINING UP FOR FOOD PLEDGE WORK THIS WEEK

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., October 30.—Women's organizations, lodges, clubs, churches, labor organizations, farm school agents, in fact every patriotic society or agency in the state is lined up behind Fred C. Croxton, federal food administrator for Ohio, for the campaign this week to enroll every family in the United States Food Administration's conservation campaign.

This is the big job assigned to the Federal Food Administrators in each state by Herbert C. Hoover, America's Food Administrator.

The goal for Ohio is 900,000 housewives. That many are expected to sign the pledge cards, promising to do their utmost to save food for our soldiers and the soldiers of our allies, and to supply the hungry nations among our allies with all the food we can spare.

From Mr. Hoover's office at Washington comes the report that the success of the campaign is assured. This is based upon reports from Louisiana which is running its campaign two weeks ahead of time, combining it with the registration of all women over 16 years of age. Food Administrator Parker for Louisiana reports more pledge cards signed in that state in one day than the total vote ever cast in any Louisiana election.

"Ohio in the front ranks," is the slogan Director Garland in charge of food pledge campaign is emphasizing.
There is keen rivalry among many of the counties and daily reports of the progress of family enrollment week which will be made to Food Administrator Croxton's office will be compiled and bulletined out to stimulate the campaign.

GET WOOD FOR FUEL COMMUNICATE WITH FREE LABOR BUREAU

Manager Smith of the local state Labor Bureau has agreed to assist in every way possible in relieving the shortage of fuel in this city by receiving information concerning those who have wood on their farms within a few miles of this city, that may be used for fuel, and all persons who have such wood are requested to call the Bureau, either telephone, and file with the Bureau a statement of amount of wood, whether cut or uncut, together with prices.

The fact that there is no relief in sight in anything like an adequate supply of coal for several weeks to come has led many local citizens to the determination to use wood during the interval, and it is to meet this demand that the location of wood for fuel is sought.

Indications are that more than one business firm will be required to use wood for fuel before an adequate supply of coal is available, as well as wood for heating many residences.

ROAD NOW OPEN TO POINT NEAR SELDEN

The Wilmington pike is now open to the J. A. Bush residence this side of Selden, and within a short time
the highway will be open into Selden, the work moving forward very nicely
at the present time.

The highway completed is one of the best macadam roads in the county, and when finished to the county line will be one of the most used sections of highway in the county.

'Theda Bara in Camille'

The love story that set all Paris talking. The one outstanding heart story of all literature. It is a tale of a woman's revolt against the bounds of convention, of a hopeless fight for freedom. As the heroine of this great picture-novel Theda Bara out does herself. She is the typification of womanhood vainly trying to cast afar the shackles of restraint.

"The most tense picture that has ever been put on the screen." — N. Y. American "Audience sat in rapt attention and all but gasped aloud." — New York Times.

A Fortune In Gowns

In a set specially built for this feature the exact replica of a famous Parisian dress making establishment shop was reproduced faithfully by Director General J. Gordon Edwards. There were scattered about in the cases gowns and hats worth thousands of dollars. In this scene Miss Bara acted as a Parisian Model, and showed some gowns of exquisite design and workmanship to prospective customers.

"YOU'LL NEVER BE CURED," DOCTOR TOLD MRS. TODD

But Two Bottles of Nerv-Worth Enabled Her to Do All Her Work.

This entirely new signed endorsement is another illustration of the folly of giving up, even when the family physician says it's all off. It is always in order to hope for better things while Nerv-Worth lasts. Mrs. Todd tells why to her Hamilton, Ohio, druggist:

Howe Drug Store: I have been sick for about 18 months. I had smothering spells. Sometimes I thought I would die. My doctor said I could never be cured. I could not stand it to do my work. I could not walk any distance. I saw Nerv-Worth was highly recommended so I got a bottle and tried it. It did me so much good that I got two bottles more. I CAN DO ALL MY WORK NOW. I will always praise Nerv-Worth.

Yours truly,

Husband returning at midnight finds two men in wife's room. His room opened on one balcony; her room opened on another, and between there was a long stretch of eaves—nothing more; and she was screaming for help. What Brent Brewster did was to jump up and grasp the edge of the eaves, a sort of ledge, and hand over hand, dangling forty feet above the ground drag himself to the front window and her rescue.

TAKE FIRST PRISONER

(The American Press)
Paris, Oct. 30.—The American batteries are continuing to shell the German lines at regular intervals, the enemy following similar tactics. The first German prisoner of war taken by the American expeditionary forces died in an American field hospital, having been shot when he encountered an American patrol in No Man's Land in front of the American trenches.

He, with another German, was discovered by the patrol and was called to halt. The Germans ran; the patrol fired and one of the enemy was hit. The prisoner was treated at a dressing station and removed to a field hospital, where the combined efforts of several surgeons failed to save his life.

BIG LOCOMOTIVES PROVE TOO HEAVY

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Athens, Greece, October 8.—There are ten monster American locomotives standing in line on a side track at the Piraeus, the port of Athens, gradually going to pieces for lack of use.
They are evidence of the progressive modern methods which a recent government railway administration sought to put into practice without, however, making due calculations in advance.

It was felt that the time had come to modernize Greek railways, and an extensive project was worked out to that end. One part of the plan was to have the latest type of large and powerful American locomotives. These were ordered, and ten of them were shipped across Atlantic. They were greatly admired when they arrived, but when they were put on tracks it was discovered that the light rails almost flattened out with the weight of the big engines, and the bridges along the main routes were not strong

PROFITEERING BY RETAILERS IS HARD HIT

(By American Press)

Washington, Oct. 30.—To prevent speculation in canned goods, special regulations will be put into operation Nov. 1 by the federal food administration.

Canners will be put under license and forbidden to make future sales of canned corn, peas, tomatoes, salmon and sardines before Feb. 1. This date later may be extended, depending on the needs of the allies and the American military forces. As in other industries controlled by the food administration, canners will be required to sell their products at a reasonable margin of profit regardless of market conditions or replacement values.

Profiteering by retailers in food-stuffs will be made impossible after Nov. 1, the food administration announced, under a plan to cut off supplies to those not satisfied with reasonable margins. Manufacturers, wholesalers and other handlers of foods, whose businesses will go under license, will not be permitted to sell to distributors who seek undue profits.

"This is one of the most sweeping safeguards," the announcement said, "against high prices which will be incorporated in the licensing system, for which complete rules and regulations will be made known within a few days."

This plan, food administration officials believe, will give the government entire control of retail prices. Wholesalers and others who continue to sell to retailers after they are forbidden to do so by the food administration will be denied the right to sell goods under license.

AFTER COAL PIRATES

(By American Press)

Washington, Oct. 30.—Attorney General Gregory decided that the coal profiteers shall feel the strong arm of the law. Many specimen cases in which the public has been "gouged" by dealers have been laid before the department of justice for investigation and instructions have been sent for vigorous prosecution of violators. Fines not exceeding $5,000 and two years' imprisonment await those who violate the fixed law.

BIG ACHIEVEMENT OF BRITISH NAVY

(By American Press)

London, Oct. 30.—Thirteen million men have crossed and recrossed the seas during the three years of the war, and only 3,500 of these have been lost. Premier Lloyd George told the house of commons in lauding the work of the navy. "The navy also has safeguarded the transportation of 25,000,000 tons of explosives and 51,000,000 tons of coal," the premier continued. The premier told how the navy had guaranteed supplies to the army abroad and material which it had enabled the allies to get from abroad.

It was too early to summarize the effect of the blockade by the British navy, which would be complete, declared the premier, if it had not left the gate of the Balkans unlocked. It was not the fault of the grand fleet if it had not had many opportunities; that was due to the enemy's knowledge of its efficacy. Since the battle of Jutland the Germans have never been fit to challenge it.

HOLLAND GOLD IS ON THE INCREASE, BUT BUSINESS IS QUIET

(Associated Press Correspondence)

The Hague, Netherlands, October 8.

The position of Holland is beginning to show an uncomfortable resemblance to that of Midas, at whose touch everything turned to gold. Instead of the urgently needed goods, more and more gold not to mention $200,000,000 worth of credit paper, has been sent to Holland, by her belligerent neighbors.

This is far more than she can employ, with the result that the gold stocks of the Netherlands Bank have quadrupled since the outbreak of war, amounting now to some $265,000,000. This means that the central bank's directly callable liabilities, in the form of banknotes and current account balances are backed by gold to the extent of 77 percent, which compares with only 17 percent in Germany.

"But of what use is our big gold reserve," Hollanders are beginning to ask, "if our productive capacity is being more and more reduced, ever more businesses are being brought to entire or partial standstill for lack of raw materials or coal, workmen dismissed, the supply of foodstuffs cut off, and our colonies, one of the nation's mainstays, likewise hard pressed by the prevailing circumstances."

If he need further evidence that the world has turned upside down, the Hollander may find it in the curious fact that his normally much-coveted gold is declined with thanks in Sweden, whole gold exports to Spain, are impossible on account of the obstacles in the way of shipment. The unpleasant result is that the Swedish exchange has risen. Holland's exports thither are too small to balance her imports from Sweden. Nothing would appear more logical than to pay in gold for the excess imports but the Swedish Bank refuses to accept it.

NAB ALIEN ENEMIES

(By American Press)

New York, Oct. 30.—Government agents are bringing to account enemy aliens who circulate false stories concerning subjects connected with the country's prosecution of the war. It became known that among the Germans recently interned at Ellis Island were several who were charged with giving circulation to such tales. That soldiers at nearby camps are committing suicide almost daily and that men in the national army cantonments are under-fed were among the falsehoods these persons are alleged to have told. Another is said to have invented a story of operations of German submarines off the eastern coast of the United States, information which he said newspapers in this country were forbidden to publish.

ANOTHER LARGE WAREHOUSE TAKEN OVER NEAR CAMP

The Henry Auch warehouse, three stories high and 30 by 50 feet, located immediately back of the large three story structure on Walnut and Water streets in Chillicothe, recently leased by The Dahl-Campbell Branch of this city, has been purchased by that firm.

The deal for the building was consummated Saturday, and the work of preparing the building for use was launched at once. It will be occupied this week.

The big building, together with the one leased earlier last week, will be purchased by the firm, it is understood, and will offer more than 20,000 square feet additional floor space, in that city, and bringing the total floor space of the firm up to more than 250,000 square feet.

CHEATS ASYLUM

(By American Press)

Cincinnati, Oct. 30.—Rather, she said, than watch her mother die slowly at Longview asylum, Miss Edith Conner, 40, of the city, shot and killed the parent, Mrs. Minerva Conner, 67, as the latter was asleep in bed at her home, she told police when she surrendered. Police, accompanied by the daughter found Mrs. Conner's body on a couch, her arms folded over her breast. Three bullets were fired into her head.

Miss Conner said: "Mother often spoke of going out of this life with gas. I began to see her mental state was hopeless. Friday I purchased a revolver in a loan office. Then I hoped the sight of these actual engines of death might divert her mind. Sunday morning at 8 o'clock I killed her."

PROPER PACKING TO PREVENT LOSS

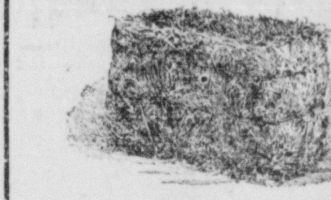

How shippers of the Pennsylvania railroad can aid in avoiding the waste and destruction of more than $2,000,000 worth of freight every year is shown in Loss and Damage Bulletin No. 7 which has just been issued by the company. The purpose of the Bulletin is to urge shippers to pack their goods properly and to use containers that are strong enough to stand transportation.

The value of freight injured in transit on the Pennsylvania Railroad has doubled since the war. This is due, is a very considerable extent, to efforts on the part of shippers to economize in the use of packing materials, and to the use of weak or second hand containers.

The Bulletin is illustrated with a series of photographs showing actual examples of improper packing and the collapse of weak containers. One picture shows a shipment of axes, which have broken through paper boxes never intended to carry such hardware. Another illustrates a damaged shipment of macaroni, which had been packed in light boxes. Other pictures illustrate similar conditions encountered in shipments of denim, cotton yarn, cotton piece goods and sheeting.
